

The Thirteen Templar Bloodlines of the Illuminati

I don't know if Springmeier made the connection or not but John Robinson in his book Born in Blood points out, en passant, that one rumor surrounding the Templars was that Demoley, just before he was whacked, commissioned several Grandmasters to divide up the Templar Treasure and scatter to the four winds and set up underground lodges in various countries.

I theorize that they each set up banks in various countries and watched each other's backs and slowly took over Europe and then America. These Grandmasters became hereditary bloodlines.

They are even more ancient than the Templars indicated by some of their signatures such as the number 23 (made famous by the Jim Carry movie). Twenty Third Wall Street was given to Morgan by Rockefeller - its the amount of times Caesar was stabbed and the amount of Leah's Household that journeyed to Egypt.

From Egypt, via the Knights of the Red Branch of Zara they traveled to the British Isles and took it over also becoming the Vikings who set up a Global Trade network after raping Europe.

The Vikings then became the Templars and took over America as the Robber Barons and have done the same in China via Access Finances per their own magazine Foreign Affairs most recent Issue (The Robber Barons of Beijing, Yuen Yuen Ang, Vol. 100, Num.4). The Symbol of the Magazine is a Man on Horseback (symbolic of a Revolutionary) which is the modern version of the Templar's two men on horseback and their motto Ubique means, "We are everywhere."

Pretty soon you're gonna be in Hell too...
